

PAINTING AND DRAWING

The Painting and Drawing course is suitable both for those who are approaching the Art world for the first time and must therefore learn the basics to be able to work independently, and those who want to perfect their skills.

The program of the course is very flexible and the student can choose their painting technique of preference and to devote up to a maximum of 8 hours to the study of drawing.

PAINTING

The Painting course focuses on the teaching of oil painting, but at the moment of the enrollment the student can choose a different technique among the following:

Ancient Techniques (egg tempera and gold leaf), Contemporary Techniques (acrylics and mixed technique).

To attend the Painting with Contemporary Techniques class and the Watercolor class it is necessary to have some experience with painting and drawing.

DRAWING

The drawing course consists of regular drawing classes or life drawing classes.

Drawing classes will focus on the representation of the human figure and its anatomy, volumes and chiaroscuro.

Life drawing involves the representation of the human figure or a still life.

During this type of class, students will learn the chiaroscuro technique, essential for the work of every artist, and they will be able to use a variety of graphic media for sketching such as pens, charcoal, and pastels.

The type of class may change based on the number of students and the number of available classes.

ABOUT OUR COURSES

Classes start every Monday and are held in the afternoon: Monday to Friday between 3pm and 7pm.

We offer three types of courses:

- Basic (6 hours per week, classes 2 days a week)
- Semi-intensive (10 hours per week, classes 3 days a week)
- Intensive (20 hours per week, classes 5 days a week)

Students also have access to the school in the morning to carry on with their work on their own.

Students learn through practice and are followed individually by the teacher in the class.

It is possible to book private lessons that are held the morning, subject to availability.

Some courses may not be suitable for beginners. All teachers speak English and Italian.

At the end of the course students can request a Certificate of Participation.
